INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Directors
Energy Cooperative Association of Pennsylvania
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Energy Cooperative Association of Pennsylvania (a Pennsylvania corporation), which comprise the balance sheets as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the related statements of operations and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Energy Cooperative Association of Pennsylvania as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Energy Cooperative Association of Pennsylvania and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Energy Cooperative Association of Pennsylvania's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Energy Cooperative Association of Pennsylvania's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Energy Cooperative Association of Pennsylvania's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

Supplementary Information

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements as a whole. The Schedules of General and Administrative Expenses is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
December 31, 2025 and 2024

NOTE 1 – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of Activities

The Energy Cooperative Association of Pennsylvania (the Cooperative) is a 501(c)(12) nonprofit cooperative organized to help its members (those who purchase at least one service in a 12-month period) transition to renewable energy, access reliably affordable and transparently priced heating oil, and understand their energy choices. The Cooperative is a licensed retail electricity and gas supplier in Pennsylvania and provides renewable electricity, renewable natural gas, and access to fixed margin home heating oil through a curated supplier network to its members. The Cooperative educates its members and broader constituency on renewable energy, energy markets, energy choice, energy consumption, and related topics.

Restricted Cash Escrow

In accordance with the agreement with its credit sleeve counterparty that provides working capital for payments to the Cooperative's wholesale electricity vendors, the Cooperative has established an escrow account into which electricity utilities make deposits after the Cooperative's members are billed.

Accounts Receivable and Credit Losses

Accounts receivable includes amounts earned but not yet received from electricity, natural gas, and heating oil delivery commission charges. Trade credit is generally extended on a short-term basis; thus, trade accounts receivable generally do not bear interest. Accounts receivable are stated at the amount management expects to collect from balances outstanding. Management has reasonable grounds not to anticipate uncollectible amounts from the Cooperative's energy programs. For the renewable electricity and renewable natural gas program the Cooperative pays all receivable fees for all utilities to ensure that they are paid regardless of whether any individual energy consumer account doesn't pay their bill. For the heating oil program, heating oil vendors pay commissions in aggregate on a monthly basis. The Cooperative has agreements in place for payment terms and does not have cause to anticipate nonpayment, based on current market and sector conditions, forecasts, and historical data indicating that it will get paid and does not need to allow for uncollectible amounts. Balances that are still outstanding after management has used reasonable collection efforts are written off through a charge to the allowance for credit loss accounts and a credit to accounts receivable. There was no allowance for credit losses as of December 31, 2025 and 2024 or at January 1, 2024. Accounts receivable at January 1, 2024 was $395,581.

When estimating expected credit losses, the Cooperative has elected to use the practical expedient that allows it to assume that the current economic conditions as of the balance sheet date do not change for the remaining life of the asset and the accounting policy election that allows it to consider collection activity after the balance sheet date. The Cooperative has considered subsequent collection activity through June 22, 2026.

Property and Equipment

Acquisitions of property and equipment are recorded at cost. Capital expenditures in excess of $500 are recorded as property and equipment. Maintenance and repairs are charged to expenses when incurred.

Depreciation of property and equipment is provided using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the respective assets as follows:

|---------------------------------|---------|
| Computer equipment and software | 5 years |
| Furniture and office equipment | 7 years |

Intangible Assets

Intangible assets with finite lives are amortized on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives. Website design is amortized over three years and customer lists are amortized over fifteen years. The estimated useful lives of intangible assets are reviewed annually to determine if events or circumstances warrant a change in the remaining useful life of an asset. In addition, intangible assets are reviewed for impairment when events or circumstances indicate their carrying amount may not be recoverable. No changes or impairments were noted for 2025 and 2024.

Leases

The Cooperative does not separate nonlease components from lease components for all classes of underlying assets and instead accounts for each separate lease component and the nonlease components associated with that lease component as a single lease component. If the rate implicit in the lease is not readily determinable, the Cooperative uses a marginal borrowing rate as the discount rate for the lease for all classes of underlying assets.

Income Taxes

The Cooperative qualifies as a tax-exempt organization under Section 501(c)(12) of the Internal Revenue Code and is exempt from federal, state, and local income taxes as long as more than 85% of revenue is received from its members. The Cooperative is considered a cooperative corporation for Pennsylvania state tax purposes and must pay a gross receipts tax on receipts from the sale of electric energy at retail to end-use customers in Pennsylvania. Applicable taxes, totaling $188,345 and $167,903 for 2025 and 2024, respectively, have been included as a component of electricity purchases on the statements of operations.

Revenue Recognition

Renewable Electricity and Natural Gas

The Cooperative buys electricity and natural gas on the wholesale market and sells directly to its members. Revenue generated from contracts with members for electricity and natural gas is recognized as a single performance obligation satisfied over time and is recognized at fixed or variable rates as renewable electricity or renewable natural gas is delivered to the customers during the month. The Cooperative generally has a right to consideration in an amount that corresponds directly with the value to the customers of the Cooperative's performance completed to date and has elected to recognize revenue for its sales of electricity and natural gas, billed monthly, using the invoice practical expedient.

Heating Oil

The Cooperative facilitates the supply of home heating oil for its members. The Cooperative has agreements with select home heating oil suppliers. Suppliers agree to pay the Cooperative a per gallon commission for home heating oil delivered to its members. Heating oil commission revenue is recognized at a point in time.

Sales tax, when applicable, is collected from members and remitted to the respective jurisdictions. Revenue is reported net of any sales tax.

The Cooperative has determined that the nature, amount, timing, and uncertainty of revenue and cash flows are most significantly affected by the concentration of the Cooperative's members consuming renewable energy in Southeastern Pennsylvania.

Advertising

The Cooperative expenses all advertising costs as incurred. Advertising expense for 2025 and 2024 was $51,827 and $75,688, respectively.

Estimates

Management uses estimates and assumptions in preparing financial statements. Those estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities, and the reported revenues and expenses. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Date of Management's Review

Management has evaluated subsequent events through June 22, 2026, the date which the financial statements were available to be issued.

The Cooperative must retain PPP documentation in its files for six years after the date the loan was forgiven and permit authorized representatives of SBA to access such files upon request. The SBA may review any loan at any time at its discretion.
